

NEWS BULLETIN 329

MONDAY AUGUST 12, 2019

American Quilter Finds Peace with War Survivors in Nepal

A Quilter's Journey-The Bardiya Memorial Quilt Project

"Women are so strong..."

After suffering a devastating personal loss, Bobbi Fitzsimmons, a well-known quilter from North Carolina, sought solace by training women who lost family members during the conflict in Nepal. Follow Bobbi as she gains an understanding of the sorrow of war and puts her own loss into perspective.

* For more information about the disappearances in Nepal and the Bardiya quilting project visit our website.

* Donate to the Bardiya quilters: GlobalGiving is matching small grants from today.

The Advocacy Project, 2201 P St, NW, Rm 204, Washington, DC 20037.
+ 1 202 758 3328; DCooffice@advocacynet.org